A high-efficiency LED and deep reflector create a smooth beam on either low or high. A sleek, pen-shaped aluminum body is durable, easy to carry, and features a sturdy pocket clip that keeps Solo securely in place. Because losing a flashlight this stylish and functional is not something you'll get over easily.

- High-strength aluminum body with sturdy pocket clip
- Durable power-regulated LED maximizes output and runtime; never needs replacing
- Micro-textured reflector creates a smooth, powerful beam
- Ergonomic "clickie" tailcap switch allows for easy switching between two output levels
- Sealed with O-rings; weatherproof
- Powered by two AAA alkaline batteries; included
